This will be the first convention in hich the united divisions of Virginia ill be represented and it will be largely tended by Virginia delegates all over tender the State. The meetings will be held in hrist Church parish house.

One of the most charming of recent house parties in Virginia was that given last week by General Philip St. George Cocke, at Lower Bremo, on the James, where guests were entertained in a rashion worthy of the palimiest days of rink hospitality. Horseback riding, driving and all out-door pleasures possible were added to the in-door edoyment, which everyone experienced. The party was emertained for a day by Genral Logan at "Algoma," where a spiranid Guests included Mirs. William Cocke, Misses Virginia, Blizabeth and Clara Cocke, Miss Evelya Bridges and Mr. Iames Oliver, of Richmond; Miss Anie Cabell Campbell, "Recess;" Miss Rosa McBee, O. An interesting marriage to many Virrinians was that of Miss Louise Harrison Beall to Dr. William Clarence Gwynn, the wedding taking place quietly in the parlors of the Stafford Hotel, Baltimore, on the evening of July 3d.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Janes F. X. Mulvaney, of Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Washingtion, D. C. The parlors were filled with the fragrance of white sweet peas massed against palms. The bride, attended by Miss Margaret Tilden Owings, was gowned in duchesse and round point lace overhiffon and silk, and carried a shower of white sweet peas. She is a daughter of Colonel Henry D. Beall, the well known journalist, and through her mother, Miss Namnie V. Lewis, of Lynchburg, is connected with the Harrisons, Lewises and other prominent Virginia families.

A resolution was offered increasing the Mayor's salary from $2,000 to $4,000 per year, and it was referred.

Outside of some other matters, the nature of which are related elsewhere, the session was devoted mainly to the consideration of routine business.

President Bloomberg called the meeting sideration of routine business.

President Bioomberg called the meeting to order at 8:15 o'clock, and eighteen members, barely a quorum, answered to their names.

Several other members reported, and the clerk read a communication from His Honor, the Mayor, asking that the Police Board he authorized to employ special police until such time as in their discretion the same should not be needed for the preservation of good order in the city on account of the street car strike situation, and the communication went to the that of Miss Elsa Tudor to Comie Alain Dedons de Pierrefeu.

on account of the street car strike situation, and the communication went to the Committee on Finance.

An ordinance from the Street Committee recommending that the Seaboard Air Line Railroad be allowed to cross Frank-in Street at Ffiteenth with four tracks, caused some debate, but it was finally adopted, objection having been ultimately withdrawn. Mr. Ellett made a strong speech for the ordinance.

A number of resolutions and reports

A number of resolutions and reports from the Committee on Streets were re-ceived and referred to the Committee on on Streets, and caused quite a discussion, and were finally rejected—ayes, 11: noes, 12. A number of ordinances failed on account of the lack of the presence of twenty-four votes, and they were reconsidered and passed by.

An ordinance was adopted permitting Mrs. A. D. Atkinson to construct and maintain a covered way in front of her proposed hotel at Ninth and Grace Streets.

FINANCIAL MATTERS.

Several reports from the Finance Committee were adopted, among them being one increasing the pay of the matron of the colored Almshouse from $20 to $12 per month. Mr. Pollock having spoken strongly for the adoption of the latter. General Anderson offered an ordinance regulating the certification of pay rolls of city employes, so as not to require the presence of a quorum of committees for this purpose except once a month. The ordinance went to the Committee on Ordinance, Charier and Reform.

Mr. Bottoms offered his resignation as a member of the Council from Clay Ward, and it was laid on the table upon motion of several of his colleagues. The member stated that he was moved to offer the paper for personal reasons, which he deemed sufficient.

Mr. Clowes (by request), for Mr. Hicks, offered a resolution raising the salary of the Mayor from $2,000 to $4,000 per year, and it was referred to the Committee on Finance.

After some further business, mostly routine in its nature, the body adjourned. Dr. Paul R. McFadyen, who spent last week as the guest of Mrs. N. M. Sibert, at No. 614 East Grace Street, has re-turned to his home in Randicman, N. C. Mr. N. C. Raymond, who is a guest at Mrs. M. J. station itself was handsomely adorned, a special feature being the plentiful use of the French colors, and the monogram,
"R. F." (Republique Francais). Extraordinary precautions were made for the safety of the President.

The King stopped forward as the President alighted and shook hands with him.
King Edward then introduced the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of Fife, Premier Balfour, Foreign Minister Lansdowne, Field Marshal Lord

After an inspection of the guard of honor, the King and M. Loubet left the station and entered a State carriage, in which the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught were also seated. The vehicle, escorted by a detachment of Life Guards, was then driven through the crowded, trop-lined and well decorated streets to St. James Palace. M. Loubet was loudly cheered everywhere. Opposite the entrance of the Palace on a balcony of Mariborough House were the children of the Princes of Wales, who saluted the President and the King. The latter first noticed his grandchildren, returned their salute, and drew M. Loubet's attention to them. The President immediately half stood up, smiled and saluted the youngsters.

tain Jenkins has been elected, and is considered a most valuable member of the board.

The officers of the board were elected to serve one year, as follows: President, Captain John H. Frischkorn; Vice-President, G. Watt Taylor, and Secretary, L. S. Jones. These gentlemen have filled these offices for a number of years. Captain Frischkorn was the first president of the board, being elected by the board when it was first installed, and has been re-elected every year, this being his fifteenth term as president, and he is considered one of the city's most valuable officers. He is an acknowledged authority on anything pertaining to firefighting, not only at home, but all over the country.

Captain G. Watt Taylor, a former chief engineer of the Fire Department, has been vice-president of the board ever since he has been a Fire Commissioner, and is a most excellent officer, always taking great interest in the welfare of the department and its discipline. Mr. Jones has been secretary of the board and the Fire and Fire Alarm Departments for the past seven years, and gives general satisfaction.

Those present at the meeting were President J. H. Frischkorn and Messrs, L. C. Jenkins, Charles Keppler, Joseph L. Levy, Charles F. Taylor and G. W. Taylor, also Chief W. G. Puller. Superintendent W. H. Thompson, Assistant Chief G. C. Shaw and Secretary L. S. Jones.
